Dear Valued Client,

I hope this communication finds you and your family safe and in good health.

As you are aware, the widespread outbreak of the Novel Coronavirus (COVID-19) has become a significant challenge for the global community. Not only is it a serious health concern, it is also causing significant volatility in the capital markets and has brought daily life to a near standstill around the world. As the COVID-19 fall out deepens, leading global economists are increasingly viewing the pandemic as a precursor to a global recession.

Amid these difficult times, Sharq Investment Company would like to reassure you, that we are working ever so vigilantly and keeping a close eye on developments as they unfold. We have rolled out a robust action plan which aims to achieve 1) the safety and wellbeing of all our clients; and 2) regular communication across our teams and with our clients, regulators and other relevant government authorities.

Our foremost priority remains the safety of our clients. As such, we are actively monitoring and complying with the World Health Organization and government directives to ensure that we maintain a safe work place and protect the communities in which we operate through our development projects and investments.

As a business, we have also prepared for every eventuality. This includes necessary arrangements for maintaining uninterrupted international and local monetary transfers required on behalf of our clients.

I would like to close this note by highlighting this important point that- Such turbulent times are not without challenges, however, which we are addressing with expedience and in an effective manner.

We wish you the best and we are here if you need us in any capacity.

Khaled Awad,

C.E.O
